

HOSPICE OF SOUTHERN WV ANGEL TREE - TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY

Posted on December 1, 2017 by Tyler Barker

BECKLEY WV - Hospice of Southern West Virginia celebrates the season with their annual Angel Tree Ceremony today, December 1st at 1:00 pm at Crossroads Mall in Bradley, WV. Families can memorialize their loved ones by placing a named angel on the trees.

Angels are available for any donation made to Hospice of Southern WV. Anyone making a donation of $20 or more will receive an angel and special 2017 keepsake ornament to take home for their family tree. Angels can be purchased by anyone, regardless if their loved one received hospice care.

The ceremony includes music, tree lighting and poem readings. After the ceremony the Angel Trees will be located near the front entrance of the mall. Angels can be purchased and placed on the trees through December 22nd. All of the proceeds will support Hospice of Southern WV.
