

2018 WV AMATEUR - SECOND ROUND

Posted on June 6, 2018 by Matt Digby

White Sulphur Springs, WV (WOAY) - The 99th West Virginia Amateur Championship continued Tuesday at the Greenbrier, with golfers playing the resort's Old White TPC course.

After one golfer broke par on the Meadows course Monday, two golfers posted subpar rounds on Tuesday - Hurricane's Sam O'Dell & Beckley's Patrick Smith. 50 golfers in total would make the cut (+18), nine of them coming from Southern West Virginia.

Golfers will return to the Meadows course for the third round Wednesday.

Top 5 overall after 36 holes:

1. Sam O'Dell (Hurricane): -1
2. Pat Carter (Hurricane): +4
- T3. Trent Roush (Mason): +5
- T3. Ben Palmer (Parkersburg): +5
5. Patrick Smith (Beckley): +6

Nine area players to make the cut: Smith, Isaiah Zaccheo (Beckley), Walker Dent (White Sulphur Springs), Tyler Hillyer (Princeton), Nick Dent (White Sulphur Springs), Jeff McGraw (Princeton), Landon Perry (Shady Spring), Brett Laxton (Pineville), Derek Brooks (Mullens)
