Athens, WV (WOAY) - The Mountain East Conference has selected Concord women's basketball freshman forward Riley Fitzwater from Glenville, West Virginia as their Player of the Week.

Last week, Fitzwater averaged 18.5 points, 19.5 rebounds, and 8.5 blocks to help her team defeat Wheeling Jesuit and West Liberty as Concord improved to 6-7.

Fitzwater is the second player on Concord's women's basketball team to be awarded MEC Player of the Week. Her teammate Madison May was also awarded in December.
