

HOMEOWNER DETAINS OAK HILL MAN AFTER BREAKING INTO HOME

Posted on July 7, 2019 by Tyler Barker

FAYETTE COUNTY, WV (WOAY) - In the early morning hours this date, Deputies were dispatched to the Kincaid area in reference to a burglary in progress call. While enroute the Deputies were informed that the homeowner was detaining the alleged suspect outside.

Upon arrival, Deputies found the homeowner and a neighbor detaining a male subject outside in a creek adjacent to the home. Upon reviewing the home security camera footage, it was determined the suspect did make entry into to the home, and was eventually chased out by the homeowner.

Jeffrey Boyd Witt, 41 of Oak Hill, was placed into custody and charged with the felony offense of Burglary. He was transported to the Southern Regional Jail to await arraignment.
