FAYETTE COUNTY, WV (WOAY)- Two inmates are in the hospital after a reported inmate attack at the Mount Olive Correction Complex tonight.

According to the West Virginia Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety, two inmates got into a fight one of which had a makeshift weapon.

Following standard procedure, the facility went into lockdown. A third inmate received medical attention at the facility.

An internal review is underway and State Police will be conducting the investigation.

Names are not being released.
