

NEAL BROWN GOES RAFTING ON NEW RIVER

Posted on May 28, 2019 by Nolan Knight

WOAY - Neal Brown and his staff took their morning off to travel to Fayette County to try their hand at rafting on the New River. It was a teambuilding activity for the newly formed staff as the Mountaineers prepare for their first season under head coach Neal Brown.

Brown says that he's been spending a lot of time in southern West Virginia and is starting to feel familiar with the area and is excited to be apart of the state of West Virginia.
