

NEW WV HOUSE BILL WOULD REQUIRE CURSIVE WRITING BE TAUGHT IN GRADES K-5

Posted on February 13, 2019 by Tyler Barker

CHARLESTON, WV (WOAY) - A new bill introduced in the House of Delegates would require cursive writing to be taught in grades K-5.

House Bill 2994 or also known as "Woody Williams Writing Act" would require cursive writing to be taught in grades K-5.

The full bill can be seen below:

hb2994 intr