

THE QUINTESSENTIAL SNOW STORM LIVE SHOT

Posted on January 4, 2018 by WOAY NEWS STAFF

We thought you might enjoy this video clip on a day like today - as we poke a bit of fun at ourselves.

This is Gary Vosot. His last name stands for the newsroom lingo term - Voice Over / Sound On Tape. Essentially it's about a :45 second story where the anchor reads over video and then an interview pops up.

Gary actually did report earlier in his career, that's probably why he's so spot on even from a professional perspective, but decided to focus on comedy instead.

Enjoy!
