LOGAN, WV (AP)- Authorities have recovered a body from a river in West Virginia.

The Logan County Sheriff's Office released a statement on Monday reporting the body was found in the Guyandotte River. The sheriff's office is trying to identify the body.

The statement says it appears to be a white male who was wearing a blue shirt, blue jeans and orange and black tennis shoes.

The body is being sent to the Medical Examiner's Office for an autopsy.
